STUDENT SPEAKER

Madison Kelly
Petroleum Engineering

Madison grew up in western Montana and graduated from the small town of St. Regis with a class of 7. She is a member of Montana Tech's Cross Country and Track teams and has spent the last two summers in Texas interning with Petroleum Engineering companies. She loves the opportunities and support that Montana Tech provides its students.

STUDENT SPEAKER

Austin Seyer
Mathematical Sciences

AJ, originally from Colorado, came to Montana Tech in response to God's calling on his life. After falling in love with Butte's community and culture, AJ and his new wife Alyssa plan to stay on campus as missionaries that all might know the love of Jesus.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Bryan Larson
Vice President of Product Excellence, Stryker

Larson began his tenure at Stryker, a Fortune 500 medical technology company, in 1997 after graduating from Montana Tech with a Bachelor's Degree in Engineering Science and Associate Degree in Business. He worked his way up from Manufacturing Engineer to Production Unit Manager, to R&D Manager, to Director of R&D then Vice President of R&D to his current role as the Vice President of Product Excellence for the Endoscopy Division of Stryker. He is also a co-chair of the Stryker Corporation R&D Council.

In addition to his BS and AS from Montana Tech, Larson earned his MBA from Santa Clara University and has completed executive programs at Harvard Business School and Stanford University.

Larson was born in North Dakota and grew up in Gillette, WY, where he earned his Eagle Scout in 1989 and graduated from Campbell County High School in 1992. While at Montana Tech, he played defensive end on the football team from 92-96, earning first-team NAIA Academic All-American and first-team NAIA All-American honors. He was team captain in 95 and 96 and was inducted into the Montana Tech Athletics Hall of Fame in 2008.

Larson continues to passionately support Montana Tech with a strong affinity for Digger football attending the annual Montana Tech Jackpot Trip since 2004. Larson is the current chair of the Montana Tech Foundation and has served on the board since 2016.

Larson's wife Kimberly was Stryker's Senior Director of Human Resources for 22 years. They have been married for 20 years this May and have two daughters, Logan (15) and Brooke (10).

EARLY IMPACT AWARDEE

Johanna Ostrum

Johanna Ostrum is the Chief Operating Officer at Transitional Energy, a geothermal technology and development company focused on co-produced energy from oil and gas wells and infrastructure. Johanna helped build Transitional Energy from the ground up and has been instrumental in winning grants, executing a pilot project in Nevada, and creating a new market for small, modular geothermal energy. Johanna has nearly two decades of experience in the energy industry in various engineering, regulatory, policy, and management positions. With a B.S. in Geological Engineering from Montana Tech, Johanna has brought an intradisciplinary and collaborative approach to every position she has held. Johanna has contributed to every part of the energy development value chain with various roles at Noble Energy, SM Energy, Extraction Oil & Gas, and Clean Air Task Force. Johanna currently volunteers as the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Task Force Chair at Geothermal Rising and sits on the Board of Directors of the Energy Leadership Institute.

Micaul Querciagrossa

Micaul is a Family Medicine Physician Assistant at Intermountain Health, previously SCL Health. She also provides healthcare at the Montana Tech Student Health Center and on the sidelines of local football games. Micaul is a Butte native who graduated from Montana Tech in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in Biological Sciences. Upon graduation, Micaul received the Most Outstanding Biological Student Award. She graduated with a master's degree in Physician Assistant Studies from A.T. Still University in Mesa, AZ, in 2018. In 2019, Micaul was voted to Butte's 20 Under 40 in 2019. She serves as a board member for Uptown Hoops, a nonprofit 3-on-3 basketball tournament in the streets of uptown Butte.
